

KEITH FLYNN

ASSET ADVISOR AND AUCTION MANAGER, QLD & NT

Keith joined the auction industry in 2010 and Slattery Auctions in 2013 and is responsible for the running of the asset remarketing business in both Queensland and NT including management of the Queensland auction and administration team.

Keith's background as a Queensland Stock and Station Agent gives him unique insight into the markets he is responsible for and he is specifically experienced in farming and agricultural equipment. Over his 5 years in the auction industry he has also gained a deep understanding of both the earthmoving and transport sectors.

Keith holds the following licences and qualifications:

- › Corporate member of the Auctioneers and Valuers Association of Australia (AVAA)
- › Licensed Auctioneer and motor dealer

What sets Slattery's apart?

"We take a hands on approach to every job. All our people strive for customer/client satisfaction and do what ever we can to make it happen."

What are you aiming to achieve in the next year?

"I hope to see our company grow and become the market leader in the auction industry. I believe we have all the pieces in place now and with enough hard work Slattery's will become everyones first choice when choosing an Auctioneer."

What is your favourite pastime?

"Chasing cows and auctioning big trucks!"
