What do you think sets Slattery apart?

"Beyond just the right tools, people are a critical factor to a successful business. The human element at Slattery always go the extra mile, this is what gives us the edge. Everyone shares the same vision and is dedicated to the mission. This truly creates a family environment where everybody is there for each other".

What makes good client service?

"Being a collaborative partner with a win/win orientation. Cultivating productive relationships with key stakeholders such as corporate customers, staff, and board member".

What are some of the aspects you love most about auctions?

"Everyday you can walk into the warehouse and see something new, it never ceases to amaze me the range of items we auction off".

What is your favourite pastime?

"Fitness was something I always loved as a child and due to injury, I had to stop at 23. At the age of 45 I decided to get back into it and have never looked back. My goal now is to use fitness to destroy the myth of a midlife crisis and be better at 50 than I was in my 20's".
