

JONO WILSON

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT MANAGER, NSW

Jonathon has a family background in stock and station agency and has predominately worked in finance. He spent two years working as a money broker in the financial markets in Sydney prior to accepting a role on the NAB Graduate Program. It was in this role that Jonathon returned to his country roots and spent the next 5 years as an Agribusiness Banker in Northern NSW and Central QLD. A desire to enter the auction industry saw Jonathon commence with Slattery's in 2013.

His current key responsibility is running a best in class Truck and Machinery Remarketing operation in Newcastle that services Sydney and the wider NSW catchment area. He ensures robust processes and procedures are stringently followed to ensure our clients meet their compliance and probity obligations protecting them from future complications. Jonathon co-ordinates the truck and machinery auctions to ensure all sale operations run efficiently and effectively and his strong communication skills, love of building and developing relationships as well as his affable nature suits in his role when liaising with customers. These attributes also compliment Slattery's strong emphasis on client service.

What sets Slattery's apart?

"Our honesty and integrity. Always doing what's right by the customer."

What is your highlight at Slattery Auctions?

"Controlling the on-site post sale of a $2 million clearing auction in the bush. This had a seemingly endless amount of challenges, but we got there in the end."

What are you aiming to achieve in the next year?

"I'm looking to further my experience running multiple auctions and understanding the challenges of leading a multi discipline team."
