

SEAN DEEBLE

SENIOR VALUER, NSW

Sean joined the Slattery Asset Advisory team as a Valuer after spending two years managing the day-to-day operations of our Sydney office. He brings with him a highly specialised skill set in the aviation sector and places a high priority on building excellent client relationships.

Sean began his career with the Slattery Group in 2008 assisting with Motor Vehicles, to working his way up to become a Senior Valuer. During this time Sean has worked on many large projects across an array of industries.

What achievement are you most proud of?

"Being one of the startup on the ground team for the launch of our corporate offices and auction rooms in Sydney and helping to establish and build the Slattery Brand in the Sydney metro area."

What has been one of your highlights as a member of the Slattery Team?

"Holding our first sale of Australian Defence assets in the Villawood site mere weeks after opening and seeing it roll out a huge success for our client.."

What are you hoping to achieve in the next year?

"Helping to make Slattery Asset Advisory and Slattery Auctions one of the top asset advisory and remarketing companies in Sydney."