

GREGG WATT

NATIONAL SALES MANAGER

Gregg recently joined the Slattery team as a National Sales Manager. Originally from Tasmania, Gregg begun his career as a key account manager with J.Boag & Sons. He then became the Tasmanian and Victorian manager for Sensis (Yellow Pages), before moving becoming the national sales manager.

In 2017, Gregg took a role with WridgWays as the National Business Development Lead before moving into a General Manager position. Gregg brings with him a wide range of experience, in people management and sale processes. He has a wide range of knowledge in the salesforce systems.

What do you think sets Slattery apart?

"Slattery is a personalised service, a family owned company that cares about it's people and strives to be the best it can. With a focus on positive culture and being the best in the industry".

What makes good client service?

"Attention to detail and the ability to be able to deal with people at all levels with the required empathy. Consistency is also key to providing the highest level of customer service".

What is one of the aspects you love most about auctions?

"I am new to the industry, however the fast-paced negotiations of auctions is extremely exciting".

What is your favourite pastime?

"Spending time with my two Children and watching and going to the AFL. I am a long term Richmond supporter".