

ANDREW HAYES

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT MANAGER, WA

Andrew joins the Slattery Auctions team with a range of experience in warehousing, freight distribution and sales.

After commencing his career in England working in various warehouses and distribution centres, Andrew returned to Australia in 2002 to take on a role as a Warehouse Manager for a health product company in Western Australia, before becoming the WA State Manager and the National Operations Manager for the business in NSW.

Andrew returned to Perth, where he worked as a State Manager for various business, before opening up his own Landscaping Design Business.

What do you think sets Slattery apart?

"Transparency and integrity are important values for any business, and I believe that Slattery excels in these areas".

What makes good client service?

"Honesty and doing what you say you will do when you say you will do it".

What are one of the aspects you love most about auctions?

"I love the excitement and atmosphere that surrounds an auction".

What is your favourite pastime?

"When I'm not mountain biking I love camping and spending time with my family".