

GRANT TANNER

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT MANAGER - BANKING, INSOLVENCY & FINANCE

Grant recently joined the Slattery Asset Advisory team with over 20 years of management experience in Banking & Finance with nab, Westpac & Scottish Pacific where he developed invaluable experience in SME business development, business & corporate banking including senior relationship management, risk and restructuring roles. This background gives Grant a strong ability to understand key stakeholder requirements and manage such relationships across all types of asset management and remarketing projects for various vendors.

Grant has an extensive network of professional contacts, having developed and maintained these strong relationships with such contacts across various industries during his career in business lending and asset management.

Grant has also ensured he remains abreast of market trends, changes and professional development having undertaken insolvency industry qualifications with ARITA whilst managing several portfolios of impaired Bank business customers to ensure he has the technical expertise to support his strong relationship and asset lending skills. Co-ordinating smart asset disposal strategies and efficient project management for Slattery clients makes Grant a great asset within our market leading asset advisory team.

His qualifications include:

- › Bachelor of Finance - Deakin University
- › Advance Insolvency Law & Practice - ARITA
- › Australian Banking Institute - Fellow

What do you think sets Slattery apart?

"What struck me from day one at Slattery was a genuine team culture based on strong family values and the willingness of people across all divisions to ensure you are supported and encouraged to be proud of our business and your own abilities".

What makes good client service?

"Knowing when to listen, demonstrating initiative, professionalism and confidence in all client interactions. Developing deep relationships with our clients and treating every interaction or job like it was the first means we can keep exceeding our clients expectations">

What is your favourite pastime?

"Cooking for the family, heading down the Mornington Peninsula to our beach shack and chasing that elusive second hole in one".
