

CONNOR CARROLL

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT MANAGER, SYDNEY

Connor joined the auction industry in 2013 after a successful career in the Australian Army. Since joining the Auction industry Connor has been trained in the valuation and disposal of fleet assets including passenger cars, commercials, trucks & trailers, earthmoving, machinery, and manufacturing equipment. A typical year would see Connor value in the order of 5,000 assets over various asset classes nationally. Connor brings this depth of knowledge of the current marketplace for these asset classes to the valuation process.

Before joining Slattery Auctions in 2020 Connor was the National Sales Director of another National Auction Firm. A strategic acquisition by Slattery saw Connor take on the role of the Sydney Operations Manager and has now into the Sales team as Business Development Manager. Overseeing all parts of our Sydney operation, as well as managing large national corporate accounts such as Remondis, Aldi, Rentokil, John Holland, and many other blue chip Australian businesses.

Connor holds the following qualifications::

- Auctioneer and Valuer member of Australian Auctioneers & Valuers Association (AVAA).
- Accredited Member American Society of Appraisers (ASA).

“What do you think sets Slattery apart?

Our collaborative approach to assist our clients. We acknowledge and utilise the extensive skillsets of team members across the organisation to achieve goals.

What makes good client service?

Managing the expectations of our clients and delivering consistent results.

What are one of the aspects you love most about auctions?

The diverse range of assets and people that come into the rooms. Never a dull moment!

What is your favourite pastime?

Surfing without a crowd. A challenging task in Sydney.

