Slattery Asset Advisory Proposal

CODE OF ETHICS

As an organisation, Slattery Auctions Australia and Slattery Valuations Australia and their staff maintain a Code of Ethics which upholds their business standards of professionalism and ethical practice in the conduct of their day-to-day activities.

- Slattery Auctions Australia will conduct all auction / tender sales in a fair and impartial manner to client and customers alike.
- > Slattery Auctions Australia will conduct valuation exercises only after assessing all relevant details and information on the equipment being valued.
- Slattery Auctions Australia will observe the principles and processes as outlined in the Auctioneers and Agents Act 1914, the Auctioneers and Valuers Association of Australia and the Motor Dealer Act 1974.
- Slattery Auctions Australia will describe all assets for sale in their true condition and stating all faults as know to this organisation.

- Slattery Auctions Australia will provide Plant Safety Hazards Advice to Purchasers by way of documentation to meet obligations detailed in NSW Occupational Health and Safety Regulations 2001, Part 5.3 Supply of Plant, Division 2: Sale of transfer of plant.
- > Slattery Auctions Australia will uphold the highest principles of probity in the conduct of its business and will observe all statutory regulations imposed on it, not only in the letter, but also in the spirit of said regulations.